Fredericksburg Market, July 20.
 The wheat market—As yet no means have been found to judge of the probable quality of the grain, which will this year be ground by our millers. Heretofore, although a very judicious care has been exercised in the selection of wheat, our brands of flour have been a shade inferior to the A. No. 1 Richmond brands, which rule the markets of the world. In minor brands we have excelled the metropolitan millers, and "Fredericksburg Extra," is always in demand for shipping purposes. Everywhere, the reported inferior quality of this year's crop, must affect the grades of flour, but we dare say that our brands of flour will continue to compete successfully with those of other mills in the State. No definite idea can be formed of the price which wheat will demand. A prime article brought in early, may command a good price, but everything seems to indicate that the gradual course for farmers is to hold back their wheat until the European value is more fully ascertained.

Richmond Markets, July 21.
 Flour—New Flour from $6.50 to $8. Superfine extra and selling at $4.87 to $5. Extra $4.75 to $6.
 Wheat—Our millers show anxiety to obtain stock for starting, and we quote good red and white at $1.25 @ $1.35; prime $1.35 @ $1.40. Millers are willing to make contracts at these prices.

Philadelphia Cattle Market, July 19.

Sheep—Offerings about 7000, and sales at $2.00 @ $2.50 per 100 lbs. to quality. Hogs—Offerings about 900 head; and sales at $7.25 @ $7.75 per 100 lbs. net.

The weekly cattle market in New York.
 22,222, specie $35,328,184; circulation $7,349,946; deposits $107,101,081. This is an extraordinary result, and shows an accession of specie within a year of $23,000,000. The deposit line is now a little over ninety millions underlain, showing an increase in one week of $1,793,164. The Southern bank balances continue to accumulate.

The receipts from customs continue to be unusually large for this season of the year, those of New York last week exceeding six hundred thousand dollars. The market for foreign commodities is getting bare.

The Fredericksburg Recorder says—"Money is scarce with an active demand, the Banks discounting but little, on account of a scarcity of current funds."

Letter from Fauquier.
 Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.
 WARRENTON, July 20, 1858.—I have often heard it said, that to fully appreciate blessings, you must for a time be deprived of them. Such I find to be the case, from the experience of a few days spent in this pleasant town. We city folks, pent up within the narrow limits of brick walls, are never happier, never experience feelings such as rural life sweet and desirable, than when enjoying for a time the pure country air, and the society of unaffected country ladies, such as are found here.

Warrenton is a beautiful inland town, about 45 miles from Alexandria—the distance being nothing, as the whole travel is by railroad, and in a few hours after entering the cars at Alexandria, you find yourself at this delightful spot. Those in search of health or recreation should come at once. The Warren Green Hotel, one of the best in our State, is now fast filling up with strangers, preferring this beautiful locality to the Springs. Mr. Tut, the proprietor, is a fine specimen of a Virginia gentleman, being alike kind and agreeable to all, thus securing that reward which is due the polite and attentive landlord. May his popularity increase to the Warren Green Hotel be the cause of attraction.

Near to this place are the Warren Springs, long and favorably known as a great resort for strangers, not only on account of its beautiful position and fine water, but as a place for enjoyment. The number of strangers there at this time is about 80. W. W. Green, esq., the police proprietor, will do all that can be done for the enjoyment of his guests. The health of this place is good, especially among children.

We have had for the last week several good showers, which have revived the Corn very much.

Letter from Clarke County.
 Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.
 WHITE POST, July 21.—We have little of interest in our little County at this time. The farmers are all engaged in harvesting their corn and hay crops, which are good. The wheat crop proved to be worse than was even supposed at the commencement of harvest; in fact, it is looked on as nearly an entire failure, what little wheat there is being so indifferently in quality. We have had fine showers for some days, and have a fair prospect for a good corn crop, which had suffered from drought.

A barbecue was given in Berryville, on Saturday last, which was largely attended. Addresses were made by the Hon. Jas. M. Mason and Charles J. Fauquier, which were well received. The latter, in his address, looking to the future of the State, and the demand for shipping purposes. Everywhere, the reported inferior quality of this year's crop, must affect the grades of flour, but we dare say that our brands of flour will continue to compete successfully with those of other mills in the State. No definite idea can be formed of the price which wheat will demand. More Indian Disturbances.

We learn through a private letter received in this city, and dated at Fort Arbuckle, June 22, that the Camanche Indians have become irritated in consequence of being defeated by the Texans, and are now committing depredations on the Chickasaws and the whites. They had stolen some sixty horses on the night of the 20th and 21st. Gen. Croghan had just left Fort Arbuckle for Fort Washita, and word had been sent to him of these occurrences. There were only six white men at the Fort, and it could be easily taken at any time by the Camanches. The surveying party, which had started southward several days previously, numbered thirty-six men, and it was hoped they would not be interfered with.—Wash. Star.
